John (an old well-digger), everybody liked him even if he was odd. He got married and [half?] sung this little verse of his own for years. When I married Frorella, I loved her enough to eat her: After I was married six months I wished I had of eat her.

Tall Joke

Pat and Mike hadn't been around many trains or tracks. On this day they were walking down the track and heard a train coming. Pat takes right down the track on a fast run. [?] dove thru the brush.

Pat got knocked off the track. Mike says, "Why didn't you take to the bushes." Mike says, "To hell with the bushes. If you can't outrun that thing on the level, how [ou?] goin' beat in the bush."
